

Zurich, 27 February 2017

Press Release Inrate Ltd

Inrate Ltd is strengthening its Management Board

Inrate, a leading sustainability ratings provider headquartered in Switzerland, is strengthening its Management Board. The firm has been reinforced by adding two professionals with extensive experience in the fields of responsible investment and consulting of institutional clients.

Beat Zaugg, a Managing Partner and a member of the Management Board, is responsible for product development and client relations. In this position, he assumes overall responsibility for Inrate Ltd. Previously, he was the Head of Investment Consulting Switzerland at Aon Hewitt. Beat Zaugg has a master's degree in Economics from the University of Bern and is a CFA® charter holder.

Lotte Knuckles is the Head of Operations and a member of the Management Board. Before joining Inrate, she was a research manager at Sustainalytics and worked in the Netherlands and Romania. She holds a master's degree in political science from the University of Leiden. In addition to Patrick Fankhauser, Head of Sales and Business Development, and Tobias Jung, Head of Research, the two new executives bring the total of the Management Board to a team of four.

Christoph Müller, Inrate Ltd's Chairman of the Board states: "The two new, very experienced members of the Management Board, are amplifying the expertise of our leadership team. Our clients, primarily institutional investors, will benefit from innovative services in the fields of sustainability research, consulting and ESG ratings."

Contact: Patrick Fankhauser, Member of the Management Board, phone +41 58 344 00 26

Inrate Ltd, based in Switzerland, is one of Europe's leading independent sustainability ratings agencies. The firm employs a staff of 42. Its clients are comprised of banks, insurance companies, pension funds and foundations. Services provided include ESG analyses, sustainability assessments and the provision of shareholder services under the zRating label.

ESG: Environmental, Social & Governance.